In this, the Second Book, the pupil is carried on from words of one syllable to those of two and three syllables; and the same principle has been adopted, namely, the combination of interest and improvement. The lessons have been carefully graduated, commencing at first with Nursery Tales and Rhymes such as will be most acceptable to the young mind, and advancing to Fables and Anecdotes, and Stories illustrating some great moral truth. The words at first are as simple and easy as it is possible to make them, and they gradually become longer and more difficult, while the interest is maintained by the lessons never being wearisome, but in all cases light and cheerful.
