STUDIES IN THE FRENCH RENAISSANCE (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Studies in the French Renaissance All except two of the papers contained in this volume have appeared before in some form or another. But all have been revised, added to, and in some cases largely rewritten. The result is that nearly half the volume consists of new matter. The first paper, The University of Caen, was originally printed in a volume entitled Fasciculus Joanni Willis Clark dicatus, in which many friends of the late J.W. Clark united to express their sense of his lifelong devotion to the cause of knowledge and the service of the University. My own contribution seemed a fitting tribute from an alumnus of Henry VI s twin foundations of Eton and Kings College, and I was pleased to find that one of the Rectors of the University of Caen was in many respects a prototype of our friend. He was not only Registry of his University, but he was distinguished for his devotion to its interests; he gave freely of his books to its library; and he wrote a play for the students, in which he took the chief part. The paper on The Prose Romances of Chivalry appeared in French in the Revue du seizieme Steele for 1919; besides translating it I have carefully revised it. Rabelais and Geographical Discovery was contributed to the Modern Language Review from 1906 to 1910. Rabelais and Henri II is practically new, only six pages having appeared before - in French, in the Revue du seizieme Siecle (1907 and 1916). The first part of Rabelais and the Fifth Book, which relates to the He Sonante, was published in the Modern Language Review for 1906-7; in...
