Brand New Book  Print on Demand .David Wolnerman was born in 1927 in Modrzejow, Poland. Hannah, David s mother, gave birth to him on the kitchen floor of a two room home. His father had a humble job selling used burlap bags in the village. Abraham, David s brother, and his sisters, Bluma and Gertrude, enjoyed playing soccer with a ball made from their old socks. They were happy. There were both Jews and non-Jews living there and as the war broke out, life got more and more difficult for the Jews. Anti-Semitism was a problem and as Nazi soldiers came often, violence increased. Soldiers came looking for Jewish works so at age thirteen, David made a decision to go with them. They told me if I came to work, my family would be spared. To save his family, David went with them. He was taken to a camp called Auschwitz, just five kilometers from the village. Upon arrival, he saw a man separating the people into two lines, one to the left and one to the right. I saw the people that went left. They were older, crippled, or with young children. I just knew that if I went left it wasn t good. David walked up to the man who was making the decisions. That man was Dr. Joseph Mengele. He asked, Wie alt bist du? (How old are you?) David told him, I am eighteen. What allowed David to lie about his age at that moment he doesn t know. God told me something. I went right. If not, I would have been sent to my death, he recalls. There was nothing in the camps, David recalls. No...
