Jubilee Dream Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nicolas Paul Thomas, the highly gifted, boy-next-door artist believed that his career in country music had plateaued. That was until he found new love and magic in the recently disengaged, yet, still unavailable, Cinderella of his dreams. Katie Lynn Moore popped into Nick Thomas s life one night in one of his meet and greet lines, in lieu of her niece, who at the last moment, before meeting her idol, got cold-feet. This jolt-giver s touch from her lit him up, setting him on a path of winning his one true love, which could only be accomplished by him learning the true definition of the word love. Eight years after Katie s late-husband s treacherous drug-induced death in the bed of a groupie, Nicolas Paul had vowed never to break her already fragile, jigsaw-puzzled heart, ignorant of what sudden super-stardom s effect on a self-proclaimed fence-rider. Katie fell crazy in love with the sweet boy from Nashville, labeled by her as a grandfather s treasure. With a depressed former fiance back home in Kentucky, Katie was unable to pursue a new and wonderful exciting love with Nicolas Paul, but vowed to return to him when her beloved deputy was back up on his feet, and he could accept with grace the truth that his Katie-bear would never be his Mrs. Wells. In Running from Love, during that magical date night, both Nick and Katie share with each other exquisite and intimate portraits of their lives. Both their tender and tragic pasts draw their hearts to one another in not only a heart-stopping romantic love, but an emotionally-rich friendship. Nick inspired his shy Teach, as he nicknamed...
