(10) The very best kind of advertising, however, is goods actually delivered by the educational or any other department. The students themselves are the best advertisements and advertisers. Talk from them goes a long way. Association advertising that cannot be backed up with intrinsic value is worse than nothing. One of the worst criticisms that can be made of any Association is that it does not represent facts. Exaggerated, doubtful or untruthful statements or representations of any character are misleading and damaging. The Association must always be able to make good. Contented customers are the best advertisers. Large Gifts For Education (Outside of Public Schools) 1890 $ 33,500,000 1895 32,000,000 H 1900 79,500,000 BHBH 1905 93,000,000 H 114,000,000 HMH e. Preparation of advertising matter Ad-writing is a business and an art in itself. A knowledge of some of the principles would be useful in Association educational advertising and it ought logically to set the pace for the rest of the Association publicity, particularly in those Associations conducting advertising classes. Given: The feature to be advertised. (Lectures, practical talks, class work, general privileges, etc.) (1) Analyze it. Pick out the important thing. Find the right words to express the idea. Use short, simple, wellknown words or brief, pithy, sharp or pointy sentences. (2) Analyze carefully the interests of those whom you want to reach. Determine what your probable customer could or...
