Excerpt: . . . 11 As I look back on where things began to go wrong, it seemed to me that when the Olympic Committee, about 4 years ago, or maybe a little more, authorized a study that was called the McKinsey re-port, that came back and recommended that the Olympic committee be run more like a corporation. I think that is where some of the people began to lose their way. The Olympic committee is big money, no question about it, and I think they have to have some good corporate practices there in order to manage it well. But it is also a non-profit and it is also a system of training young people. It is a little different mission, maybe a big different mission than a straight corporate board would do. And in my view, what happened after that was that there were at least a few people that began to develop what I call a cultural privilege...
